

Convocation

August 22nd, 2018, Gettysburg College students participated in their first formal event as students: Convocation. Before marching through Pennsylvania Hall, students heard from Provost Christopher Zappé, Religious Studies Prof. Megan Sijapati, Student Orientation Coordinator Rebekah Hunziker '19, and President Janet Morgan Riggs. The Class of 2022 was encouraged to spend the next four years at Gettysburg engaging with new people, new perspectives, and new ways of thinking.

On August 23rd, the Class of 2022 participated in their first Gettysburg tradition: The First-Year Walk. Students made their way from the Chapel to the National Cemetery in the center of town to commemorate the walk students took to hear President Lincoln deliver his Gettysburg Address. Office of Multicultural Engagement Executive Director, Darrien Davenport, encouraged students to "pursue as many experiences as you can during your time here at Gettysburg College" and challenged them to "not only to do great work but do great work together."

Bullets

I'll love, I'll defend, and I'll honor this glorious

Orange & Blue

